COMMITTEE/CLUB ANNOUNCEMENTS

PARTNERS IN WORSHIP

The PWWA thank everyone; those who donated items, those who made cash donations, the auctioneers, those in attendance who purchased items at our annual fall auction & those who assisted in any way to raise over $3000. We appreciate your support. Our wish is for everyone to enjoy a Merry Christmas & peace in the New Year.

SHELL LAKE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Our wish for all residents of Shell Lake and area is that the Christmas season be merry and filled with happiness in the New Year.

SHELL LAKE & DISTRICT LIONS CLUB

On Saturday November 11 the Shell Lake and District Lions Club held their 28th Annual Novemberfest evening at the Shell Lake Lions hall and the "greatest salad bar" anywhere. The "Elimination Lottery" rewarded 9 winners with a $30.00 ticket refund. First ticket out and winner of $70.00 -Sonja Neilson, Spiritwood Lioness Club . The last five remaining ticket holders shared $1200.00. Three of which won $50.00 each. The final two winners, John Duncan of Shell Lake and Marcel Lamontagne of Shellbrook shared the final prize of $1050.00 each receiving $525.00. Music for the dance that followed was performed by Rod Gjerde & Guild. Rod and the band kept several of our younger crowd here until the WEEE hours of Sunday morning. We were pleased to see a good participation from our younger residents this year. This evening has now been recorded as a success and the Shell Lake Lions Club take this opportunity to thank all who attended and supported our club. Thank you to all the current and past Shell Lake Lions Club members that have worked so hard over the last 28 years to keep this event the success that it has become. Lion Anne Wilson and Lion Nel Heckel would like to thank all the Lions and non Lions ladies for their excellent help and support in preparing the supper, providing veggies and decorating the hall. Thank you to all the non Lions members in our community that have, over those same years given of their time and talents to help out our members with Novemberfest and many other club events.

The next important Shell Lake Lions Club event will be the 4th "Pasta Night Supper and Show" on Saturday April the 28/07 at the Shell Lake Lions hall. This year's professional performance will be presented by Mr. Martin Janovsky. This fundraiser's proceeds will be go to the Village of Shell Lake's sewage lagoon construction project. We look forward to your attendance and support for the Shell Lake Village council's capital costs commitments to the lagoon project and continued support of your Shell Lake Lions Club community projects.

SHELL LAKE 50 PLUS

The monthly meeting/pot luck supper was held with a very good turnout despite the fact that it was a stormy Saskatchewan night. Major topic of discussion was the Seniors Christmas Party to be held on Dec 3rd at the Lions Hall. This is open to all members or anyone who is 65+ years of age. Cost is $10.00 each for a traditional Christmas supper served at 6 p.m. Program to follow. Annual Saskatchewan Hospital trip for the bingo game with the patients took place on Nov 21. Seniors who made the trip included Fern & Loretta amontagne, Mabel Hotvedt, Aida West, Anita Weiers, Sally Hutchkowski, Doug & Gerri Solinger. Many thanks to all. Wellness Clinic (Schwartz Villa) to be held Dec 11. There will be no meeting/pot luck supper for the month of December. SEASONS GREETINGS TO ALL & HAPPY NEW YEAR.

SHELL LAKE LEGION

The lucky $100.00 winner of the Lottery 200 ticket was Thelma Bazley of Canwood.
